Celebrate Local Dance Artists at the 3rd Annual District Choreographer's Dance Festival (DCDF)

WHAT: District Choreographer's \(DC\) Dance Festival

WHEN: Saturday, September 9th and Sunday, September 10th 2023

WHERE: Dance Place 3225 8th Street NE Washington, DC 20017

TICKETS: $20 for only the Edgewood Arts Center/site-specific work, $25 for only the theater performances, and $40 for both

Dance Place kicks off our 44th season with year three of the District Choreographers Dance Festival (DCDF)! This ticketed event is a two day festival in celebration of DC's rich dance community, featuring choreographers and dancers specifically based in the DMV area. With presentations of both site-specific work and theater performances, the District Choreographer's Dance Festival (DCDF) is a dynamic and compelling celebration of local dance innovators. Dance Place is thrilled to continue nurturing the resurgence and renaissance of our local dance scene, as local choreographers bring their exciting work to our campus at this year's festival, and throughout our 2023-2024 season!

Featured artists include: Malik Burnett, Gerson Lanza, ReVision Dance Company, Claire Alrich, Orange Grove Dance, Kyoko Fujimoto and Daché Green.

Accessibility Services Offered:

- ASL interpretation will be available for the Saturday performance.
- Large print programs will be available both nights.
- Accessible seating will be available both nights.
- Accessible restrooms will be available.

About Dance Place

Rooted in the United States capital, Washington D.C., Dance Place supports movement artists by creating opportunities for creative development, performance, and education. By investing deeply in artists and centering those who have been systemically excluded from such opportunities, we strengthen the dance field.
