Dance Place Launches 2026-2027 Season

Following its Historic 45th Season, Dance Place Will Explore “The Power of Us”

Fall Trimester Kicks Off September 8 With Return of Classes, International Nerdlesque Festival Comes to DC September 11-13

WASHINGTON, DC (August 17, 2026): Last month, Dance Place launched its 2026-2027 season, themed The Power of Us. The follow up to its 45th season theme Home is Coming, this season features over 20+ performances, engagements and residencies (including informal showings) from a range of local, national and international artists. Tickets are currently on sale here.

From resident artists like chitra.MOVES, to family-friendly programs such as the Family Spooky Disco and Kwanzaa Celebration (Coyaba Dance Theater), and a range of class opportunities for children and adults alike, Dance Place is renewed in its mission and vision to support movement artists by creating opportunities for creative development, performance, and education.

The Power of Us affirms that change does not happen alone. Change is built collectively, through shared breath, shared rhythm, and bodies moving in relation to one another.

In the blog section of its website, Dance Place wrote:

None of this season would be possible without the people who show up for us each day – our staff, teaching artists, classtakers, families, students, donors, and this community who have carried us forward for 46 years. We know that Dance Place is only as strong as the people who choose to be part of it, and we don’t take that for granted.

In a time that calls for renewed connection and courage, The Power of Us honors the strength found in dancing together, the beauty of many bodies moving as one, and the transformative force that emerges when movement becomes a shared act of care, resistance, and joy. Thank you for showing up for Dance Place. We hope you’ll keep showing up alongside us.

Kicking off the 46th season (and Dance Place’s fall trimester) is the return of Dance Place’s Kids on the Move (KOM) and Adult classes. Registration for both is open now. Later that week is the arrival of The International Nerdlesque Festival on September 11-13, 2026. Additional fall trimester performances and events include:

- Hiroki Ichonose’s Lay Him Quietly, presented by the Embassy of Sweden and Dance Place
- Burlesque 101 Workshop Series
- The 3rd Annual Latinx Movement Festival
- In Flight Theater
- Family Spooky Disco

- All Hail the Creatives' annual NOËL
- Coyaba Dance Theater's beloved Kwanzaa Celebration
- And more!

About Dance Place

Rooted in Washington, D.C., Dance Place supports movement artists by creating opportunities for creative development, performance, and education. The organization strengthens the dance field by investing deeply in artists and centering those who have been systemically excluded from it.
